“I found yesterday’s event truly riveting. It was such an appropriate topic for Sunrise Foundation to undertake, by just calling attention to the terrible situation in Ukraine and showing how we all are affected by it.....” - Anita Trubitt

“Much mahalo to Sunrise, the panelists and all who made the public forum on Ukraine possible. The forum really brought he pain and suffering inflicted by Putin....” - Clay Kimoto

“Mahalo to the Sunrise Foundation for bringing together the most diverse group of people to share their experiential and academic perspectives on the current barbaric atrocities that the Russian dictator, Putin, is inflicting on the innocent people of Ukraine. This well attended event served its purpose to enlighten people on what is happening as well as how to help the people of Ukraine. It was an honor participating in the event.” - Abdul-Karim Khan

“Sincerest mahalo to Sunrise Foundation for reaching out for input on the moving April 3rd event about Russia’s invitation or Ukraine and the Ukrainian humanitarian crisis. I greatly appreciated the candor which Sunrise Foundation encouraged so we could hear the unfiltered and intimate perspectives from panelists who have close ties with Ukraine and its people. The plight of the refugees, the before and after photos of the beautiful places in Ukraine, the plight of the people with disabilities and elderly, the impact on so many innocent people, the genocide which is occurring, are all astounding.....” - David Laeha

“It was a pleasure participating in the panel and having an opportunity to be part of the panel.....It was a well designed program and I am sure many people felt a true sense of benefit and empowerment through it. - Greg Pai

“Donna did a good job in hosting the Zoom event. The issue of echoing of speaker voices hopefully can be resolved for future Zoom meetings; it took valuable time. Sharlene enjoyed the comments and pictures by Caroline MacKenzie on her description of Ukraine prior the current crisis and what it sadly is today. Greg Pai did a fantastic job in moderating the panel...” - Ron Yamauchi
