Parting Words from Lincoln's "Second Inaugural Address"

*With malice toward none; with charity for all; with firmness in the right, as God gives us to see the right, let us strive on to finish the work we are in;
to bind up the nation's wounds; to care for him who shall have borne the battle, and for his widow, and his orphan — to do all which may achieve and cherish a just,
and a lasting peace, among ourselves, and with all nations.*

May this event awaken our consciousness, nourish our spirits, enlighten our thoughts, soften our speech and enrich our humanity.

Walk gently, in peace, love and hope.
